Dear AAAS Member,

AAAS is pleased to announce recommendation of the SafeBridge Benefits Group tm (dba.... Association Benefits Alliance tm).

Charles Allen (Founder & CEO of SafeBridge Benefits Alliance... dba... Association Benefits Alliance tm) comes to us with many strong recommendations as he has almost three decades of successful experience in delivering exceptional value to association member companies with more than 321 of North America's largest national and international associations. Charles and his top-notch team of Senior Financial & Employer Benefits Professionals have a proven record of delivering great solutions, client service and value. They have helped numerous companies and employer groups throughout the southeast and the state of Alabama improve employee benefits and increase their bottom lines.

I encourage you to contact Charles Allen (or one of his Financial Professionals or Employee Benefit Specialists - via either 205-266-7270 or Charles@SafeBridgeBenefits.com for your complimentary, expert employee benefits consultation. After learning about your specific situation, needs and potential challenges in the important area of employee or executive benefits, Charles and his team will provide you with savvy professional guidance and advice needed to improve your current offerings with the goal of improving employee benefits and your company's bottom line.

The addition of the SafeBridge tm executive and employee benefits and services offerings broaden and strengthen the association's portfolio of programs and services available to you. Your association has an ongoing challenge of ever improving service, support and value for you, our member and the industry. SafeBridge tm fits well into the overall AAAS program and contributes nicely in the effort to meet this challenge. We welcome Safebridge to the AAAS team.

Respectfully,
